

the Prodigal Son

Surmise- To conclude on the basis of inconclusive evidence.
The Prodigal did not know what would happen if he went home. He recognized his stupidity and hoped for a bed in the bunkhouse. He believed being a servant in his father's house was far better than the life of a Prodigal.

Arise

Arise- With that single act the Prodigal's life began to change. The door of heaven seemed to swing on a single hinge of the boy's will. No one was ever saved who didn't want to be.

Surprise- A Robe (the best), a ring, and a new pair of shoes. Grace is more than Amazing, it is Astonishing. It is unmerited favor. Never was there a greater example of unmerited favor than the day the Prodigal came home.
